00:27:01 Megan Gonrowski-SHH: That is the link for training/ how to guides ^

00:28:39 Megan Gonrowski-SHH: Contact us at orders@2harvest.org

00:28:53 Char Graff, Second Harvest Heartland: Heartland Hub Updates and Tips should have shown up in your email yesterday.

00:38:02 Greta Lintelman: It was nice to see watermelon by a case lot in addition to a whole pallet.

00:39:30 Megan Gonrowski-SHH: Yes Greta it is great to have choice for watermelon pack size.

00:40:29 SHH Agency Relations: -What do you do for summer produce programming?
-Are you thinking of starting a summer produce program?
-What are your best practices if you do summer produce programming?
-Does your regular distribution model change during the summer

00:41:16 Annissa Zynda (she/her), SHH: How much time do we have in breakouts?

00:41:31 Annissa Zynda (she/her), SHH: Thanks Lisa!

01:07:39 Annissa Zynda (she/her), SHH: Pipestone is getting a donated Groshed - I'm really excited for them!!

01:08:05 Megan Gonrowski-SHH: Future topic: Food Rescue availability and trends

01:08:24 Char Graff, Second Harvest Heartland: One topic you'd really like to see on an AOE

01:08:51 Annissa Zynda (she/her), SHH: Correction: *Groshed - <https://www.groshed.org/>

01:08:59 Kierra Tucker - Good in the 'Hood: Hi everyone! If our food sites, had produce being donated from other places, would these additional food items need to be weighed and reported to stay in compliance?

01:09:20 Char Graff, Second Harvest Heartland: Share food shelf service data

01:10:27 Paula - Pipestone County Foodshelf: We weigh and record all donations - including fresh produce.

01:10:34 Annissa Zynda (she/her), SHH: Hi Kierra! If your sites are receiving product/produce from non-SHH sources, we'd still like to see those pounds reflected in your stats. An estimate is acceptable

01:10:57 Char Graff, Second Harvest Heartland: Hunger Solutions Helpline and The Benefits Cliff Presentation for an AOE?

01:10:59 Jane Hosman Manna Market at Fridley Covenant Church: Thanks to all the patience and hard work that has gone into the Heartland Hub transition. My questions have always been answered and help was so appreciated.
